YO SPERM TEST

Checks your moving sperm – the only ones that can reach her egg! Follow the step-by-step app instructions and you will receive automatic results, a live video of your swimmers and your YO SCORE comparing your results to thousands of fathers. Results are kept private on your phone.

Knowing your Sperm Quality is the first step in conception. But when the semen analysis ends, the Path To Pregnancy begins with YO's Fertility tools for couples. Use the free App to learn the next steps.

Who Are We? Medical Electronic Systems (MES), the company behind the YO Home Sperm Test, is the largest single provider of automated sperm analyzers in the U.S. With over 40 percent market share, it is widely respected in the industry as the gold standard in comprehensive automated semen analysis. MES's line of automated sperm quality analyzers are used in hospital labs, universities and IVF centers globally.
